Dear Lee and Sara,

I'm writing to find out if we have instructions for the Department of Justice on how EPA is going to proceed with the petitions for reconsideration in the Maine water quality standards case. On August 10, this Thursday, DOJ must file a status report with the federal District Court in Maine indicating whether EPA plans to reconsider any of its decisions, along with a proposal for further proceedings in the case.

Deliberative / Atty-Client / Ex.5

Thanks for your attention,
